

You Will Need an Oil Stove

When warm days and the kitchen fire make cooking a burden—then is the time to try a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove. Marvelous how this stove does away with kitchen discomforts—how cool it keeps the room in comparison with conditions when the coal fire was burning. The is the only oil stove built with a CABINET TOP for holding plates and keeping food hot after cooking. Also has useful drop shelves on which to stand the coffee pot or teapot after removing from burner. Fitted with two nickel-plated racks for towels. A marvel of comfort, simplicity and convenience. Made in three sizes—with or without Cabinet Top. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

NEW PERFECTION

The Rayo Lamp Just such a lamp as every one wants—hand some enough for the parlor; strong enough for the kitchen, camp or cottage; bright enough for every occasion. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

RELATIONSHIP IN TANGLE.

As a result of two recent weddings in Cambridge, Mass., acquaintances of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Murray and Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hurter have been occupied with a most tangled puzzle. On April 14 Frederick W. Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Murray, married Miss Annie Bell Hurter, daughter of William F. Hurter. On June 30, Miss Edith Maud Murray became the bride of William F. Hurter. Mr. Hurter is 61 years old and his bride is 30. The enigma which puzzles the friends of the two couples is whether Mr. Hurter should rightfully look upon his daughter as such, or as his sister-in-law, in that she is the wife of his wife's brother. Again should he consider that he should look after the guidance of Mr. Murray as a son-in-law or simply consider him a brother-in-law. It is all so asked whether, if Mr. and Mrs. Murray have a child, it should rightfully be considered a grandchild or nephew or niece of Mr. Hurter. Or if a child were to be born to the union of Mr. and Mrs. Hurter, would such child be the step-son or brother of Mrs. Murray, or her step-niece.

THE UNITED STATES NAVY.

The Paris Temps takes issue with M. Michel, who declared Tuesday in the French Chamber of Deputies during the debate on the naval inquiry commission's report that Germany stood second among the naval powers. The Temps points out that second place is held by the United States, which with a fleet of sixteen battleships "accomplished an admirable feat in the circumnavigation of the globe."

The paper adds that all English authorities class the United States second among the naval powers. Germany therefore would be third and France fourth. Germany's advance is explained by the fact that Germany has been able to devote appropriations to the building of new ships, while France has been forced to expend her appropriations in the maintenance of an already large navy.

RECEIVE BLACK HAND LETTERS.

Black Hand letters have been written to wealthy Richmond men, threatening the abduction of their children if money was not paid. In one instant the command of the blackmailer, it is said, was complied with, and a package was left at a directed spot. No one called for it. One of those who have received threats removed his wife and children to another city. It is said that the writing of those who have sent the letters resembles that of an illiterate Italian. Kidnaping has been threatened in most of the cases. One idea is that the writer is nothing more than a joker. Two of the letters written by the supposed blackmailer are evidently written by the same person. Large sums of money are demanded in each case.
